---MEYSENBURG'S COUNSEL

Judge Douglas Tells Jury "Express Agreement" for Bribery Must Be Shown to Convict.

OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS SAY "ACQUITTAL"

Following are the instructions of Judge Douglas to the jury in the Meysenburg bribery trial, delivered immediately after court opened for the first day of February, 1902. In the Circuit Court, City of St. Louis, Division No. 3, State of Missouri vs. Emil A. Meysenburg.

Gentlemen of the jury: By the indictment in this case which was found and returned into court on the first day of February, 1902, the defendant is charged with the offense of bribery. The defendant pleads not guilty.

It is the duty of the court to instruct you on all questions of law arising in this case and it is your duty to receive such instructions as the law of the case and find the defendant guilty or not guilty, according to the law as declared by the court and the evidence as you have received it under the instructions of the court.

1. If, upon consideration of the evidence, in the light of the court's instructions, you believe and find from the evidence, that, at the City of St. Louis, State of Missouri, at any time within three years next before the finding of the indictment in this case, the defendant, Emil A. Meysenburg, was a member of the Council of the City of St. Louis, that there was pending and undetermined before the said City Council, (of which defendant was such a member) a proposed ordinance known as Council bill No. 44, whereby it was proposed that the City of St. Louis should grant certain privileges and franchises to the St. Louis & Suburban Railway Co.; that while said proposed ordinance was pending and undetermined before said Council, directly or indirectly, accepted and received from one Philip Stock the sum of $9000 (or any other sum) as a gift, consideration, gratuity or reward, and upon an express understanding and agreement with the said Philip Stock, that unless and until the said sum was so paid to the defendant by the said Philip Stock (as the ostensible price and consideration of, and for certain shares of stock in the St. Louis Electric Construction Co., then and there held by the defendant or as the ostensible settlement of a certain claim held by the defendant against the Citizens' Electric Light & Power Co., the defendant as a member of said Council and in his official capacity and character as such member, would and should oppose and resist the passage and enactment of the said proposed ordinance then pending before the said City Council, and that said Philip Stock was then and there acting for and in behalf of the said St. Louis & Suburban Railway Co., its officers and members with relation to said bill, and that said Meysenburg knew that he was so acting, you will find the defendant guilty of bribery as charged in the indictment, and assess his punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of not less than two nor more than seven years; and unless you find the facts so to be you will acquit the defendant. The jury are instructed that for the purpose of this case, the word "bribe" means the money paid by Stock to defendant was paid in cash or by a cashier's check on which the money was collected by the defendant.

The law presumes that business transactions between parties are made in good faith, and it devolves upon the state to show beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Meysenburg, accepted and received the money paid by Stock to defendant was paid in cash or by a cashier's check on which the money was collected by the defendant. ### "THESE INSTRUCTIONS MEAN ACQUITTAL"

When Judge Douglas read the instructions, former Judge Priest, senior counsel to Meysenburg, who came into the case, leaned over to the defendant and whispered:

"These instructions mean acquittal." It was the consensus of opinion among attorneys outside of the case who heard the instructions that the passage stipulating that an "express agreement" must be proven to convict practically makes a verdict of guilty impossible. These attorneys agree that "an express agreement" against the defendant's demurrer, held that an "express agreement" need not necessarily be shown, thereby admitting other lawyers said, that he could not show one. When the Meysenburg trial opened at 10:30 Thursday morning the defense resumed the presentation of its case by placing Attorney Frederick N. Judson on the stand.

Mr. Judson was asked by Judge Krum whether Meysenburg had consulted him about Feb. 1, 1901, regarding a claim he held against members of the Kinloch syndicate. An objection to this question by Mr. Folk was sustained.

Mr. Krum said he desired to show by the witness that Meysenburg consulted Judson, and that Judson advised him that he had a valid right to collect his claim against the Kinloch syndicate.

The court refused to admit the evidence and Mr. Judson was excused.

William J. Allen, stenographer for Meysenburg, was the next witness.

Allen identified the statement prepared by him for his employer, showing the principal and interest due to him on his shares.

Allen said Stock had been in Meysenburg's inner office about 45 minutes and went out alone.

"Did you hear any remark made by Mr. Meysenburg as Mr. Stock went out?"

"Nothing."

Circuit Attorney Folk asked the witness if he had seen Meysenburg within the past 24 hours.

He replied that he had been at the trial Wednesday.

Mr. Folk then objected to the testimony of Allen on the ground that he had heard his employer's testimony.

Allen was questioned by the witness if Mr. Folk as to the date of the visit of KRAZ and STOCK, WITNESS SAID HE REMEMBERED IT BY REASON OF PECULIAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

"A very peculiar circumstance," observed Mr. Stock.

"Charles Kratz was there at the time,"

"Yes," said the witness.

Allen said he had seen Kratz in the office before, but had never seen Stock prior to this occasion.

ALLEN SAID STOCK'S VISIT WAS IMPRESSED ON HIS MEMORY BY THE CIRCUMSTANCE THAT STOCK BRUSHED RIGHT BY HIM AND INTO MEYSENBURG'S OFFICE.

STOCK STOPPED TO EXPLAIN HIS BUSINESS LIKE OTHER CALLERS.

STOCK REMAINED.

Folk asked Allen if he heard any exclamations of surprise when Stock rushed into Meysenburg's private office. Witness said he did not.

The circuit attorney asked the witness if Meysenburg and Kratz acted as if they expected Stock. Witness said he couldn't tell.

Allen said Kratz remained in Meysenburg's office 10 or 15 minutes after Stock departed.

Folk showed the witness the $9000 check and asked him if he ever saw it before.

"I don't think I ever saw that before,"

Allen replied, "but I think I saw a copy."

"Who had the copy?"

"Mr. Meysenburg."

Witness identified a piece of paper Folk handed him as the copy of the check. He also identified the writing and the figures as Meysenburg's.

Witness said that the defendant, Meysenburg, presented at the Mechanics' Bank the $9000 check bearing the name of Stock and himself.

Witness didn't remember the exact day of the check.

Attorney Krum asked witness who he had spoke to concerning Meysenburg's visit.

Mr. Austin stated that not only the check for $9000, presented by Meysenburg, but other checks presented by the same individual, in July, 1900, were subjects of comment and discussion among the officials of the bank.

Austin said Meysenburg had on occasions previous to the $9000 transaction asked him to cash checks that were not properly indorsed.

This testimony contradicted Meysenburg's testimony Wednesday.

Meysenburg said Tuesday that he had not presented the $9000 check at the Mechanics' Bank before visiting the German Savings institution.

Attorney Krum recalled Meysenburg to the stand.

"At what time of day did you receive the $9000 check?" he was asked.

This was overruled, as well as the next question, which was:

"Did you go to the Mechanics' Bank with the check?"

The state pointed out that Meysenburg had testified that he did not visit the bank. Here the case closed and, at 11:30, recess was taken to 1 o'clock.

Circuit Attorney Folk said, after the close of the testimony, that he considered Austin's evidence extremely important.

"Meysenburg has now been placed in direct contradiction with Austin, as well as with Councilmen Hodges and Wiggins," said Mr. Folk.

"In the matter of the memorandum on

MEYSENBURG'S DEFENSE.

The contention of the defense in the Meysenburg case is that the defendant's claim was against President Turner of the Suburban and Philip Stock as individuals.

The state has not attempted to show that the Suburban company, as a corporation, was interested in the St. Louis Electric Construction Co. or in the Kinloch syndicate, which, it is charged, wrecked the construction company by manipulation.

The Kinloch syndicate, in which Turner and Stock were directors, was the parent of the Kinloch Telephone Co. and of the Citizens' Electric Light and Power Co. It was in negotiations relating to the latter case that Meysenburg acquired the 200 shares of stock later surrendered to Philip Stock for $8966.53, which figure prominently in the case.

Meysenburg is now a stockholder in the Citizens' Electric Light and Power Co. He was a minority stockholder in the Electric Construction Co.

The check it was shown that Meysenburg made a mistake in his testimony. He manifested very bad memory by testifying that the entries were on the original check, while the testimony of Allen showed that they were on the copy.

"Austin is suffering from a mental aberration," said Meysenburg after the testimony had closed.

"He has simply mistaken some other man for me, or has allowed some other incident to become confused with his recollections of me. I did not take the check to him or to his bank, and that's all there is to it. The suggestion that I, an old bank cashier, would present an unindorsed check to be cashed, is too ridiculous to be considered."

CITY WILL TAX AT CASH VALUE IF CONGRESS BRIBED TO BUY DANISH ISLANDS?

Board of Equalization to Follow Law to Letter.

ADOPTED RESOLUTION TODAY

STATE SECRETARY HERETOFORE NOT INFORMED OF RATE HERE.

Resolution Includes the Assessment on Franchise Property—Copy to Be Forwarded to State Equalization Board.

At the session of the St. Louis Board of Equalization Thursday morning resolutions were unanimously adopted to tax property of all kinds at its true cash value, as the law directs.

This resolution will include also the assessment of all franchise property on the same basis as real estate and personal holdings are now taxed.

In the correspondence between Mr. Cook, secretary of state, and Judge R. H. Konbauer, attorney for the Board of Education, the former stated that the State Board of Equalization never was advised what the rate of valuation for the purpose of assessment was in the City of St. Louis.

In order that there may be some official record of that fact, the Board of Equalization of the City of St. Louis, at its session today, by a unanimous vote adopted the following resolution:

"RESOLVED THAT IN THE ASSESSMENT AND EQUALIZATION FOR TAXATION OF PROPERTY SITUATED WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS, AND MADE TAXABLE FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE CITY, THE BOARD WILL BE GUIDED BY THE STATUTES OF THE STATE, WHICH REQUIRE THAT ALL PROPERTY BE VALUED ACCORDING TO ITS TRUE CASH VALUE IN MONEY AT THE TIME OF THE ASSESSMENT."

AT THE TIME OF THE ASSESSMENT, THE BOARD WILL GIVE DUE CONSIDERATION TO THE FACT THAT THE CASH VALUE OF PROPERTY IN MONEY IS NOT NECESSARILY EQUIVALENT TO ITS SALE PRICE, AND THAT THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE TWO IN THE CASE OF REAL ESTATE, IN NO EVENT EXCEEDS 20 PER CENT.

A certified copy of this resolution was directed to be sent to the State Board of Equalization.

Since some charges have been made that the state is discriminating in the rate of assessment between different classes of property in St. Louis, and the board decided to place itself on record showing that such charges are unfounded the following resolution also was adopted:

"Resolved, That in the opinion of this board it has no power under the constitution and laws of this state to discriminate in the rate of assessment between different classes of property, and that any such discrimination is a violation of the constitution and laws of this state."

Members voting against it, however, voting that it only on the ground of which the board, that they deemed the adoption of the resolution unnecessary, since it simply declared the duties of the board as defined by the constitution and laws.

MISSOURI'S HORN

Missouri's horn of plenty, and her excellence, most happy land.

Missouri for long has been: But none need ever be in doubt: The glory of her granite.

For it can stoutly blow its own.

Missouri makes more dynamite than any other state in the Union. That ought to be something to look about. The Sunday Post-Dispatch has looked up the statistics in this respect, and it learns that Missouri is shattering every year the American records for production of dynamite.

The theory that New York is the most powerful state. It also blasts the hopes of the Missouri knacker.

Don't go off some place next Sunday before you read this story in the Sunday Post-Dispatch. Once into it, you'll stick to it 'til the end.

Pates of rabbits all remind us.

They could live a year or so.

Longer than the hat and blind as.

To the footprints in the snow.

A little boy in one of the St. Louis public schools took a white rabbit to school.

The teacher placed the rabbit on her desk.

And told the pupils to draw with pencil and paper just what they saw. She gave them two minutes to complete the pictures.

The result will be a feature of the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. It is a rabbit gallery, the funniest series of pictures that have ever been associated together in one place.

Dear Teacher: I tried to raise flowers in my yard last summer. I planted the seeds.

The seed came up. Nothing happened.

Then something did happen. A wild boy got in my garden.

VIOLET.

Over at Cleveland, O., a city was made beautiful with flowers and plants in the yards of the school children. The children were instructed to plant their seeds in the spring and care for their gardens during the summer. In the autumn each was to report to his or her teacher. The above is one of the many amusing letters received.

The whole story, with many fine photographs, will be printed in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. St. Louis is going to do what Cleveland has done. Possibly we may do even better, and the guard following out the borders and the guard following within. He has finally worked his way to the country, and hopes to come out safely and enlighten the world with respect to many things not known of Thibe. Possibly he can tell us what great secret the people of that little-known country are guarding.

To a man up a stump it looks like a horrible bore, and a bad secret. But no one who has ever visited the great table land has ever found a royal bore.

Report of Secret Agent Says Corruption Fund of $500,000 Was Used to Accomplish the Sale.

USES NAME OF ABNER M'KINLEY

Startling Expose Made by Representative Richardson in the House Followed by Appointment of Committee to Investigate the Allegations.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—In the House today Mr. Richardson (Tenn.), the minority leader offered as a matter of privilege a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to investigate the charges said to have been made by Walter Christman, a semi-official representative of the government of Denmark in a secret report to his government, in which it was made to appear that he was to receive $500,000 of the purchase money for the sale of the Danish West Indies for bribing newspapers and members of Congress.

The House unanimously adopted the resolution. Speaker Henderson appointed Representatives Dalzell, Hitt, Cousins, McCall, Richardson, Dingmore and Cowherd as the investigating committee.

The resolution created great excitement on both sides of the House.

The Republican leaders hurriedly consulted during the reading of the resolution and when the reading had been concluded, Mr. Payne, the majority leader, immediately moved the point of order that the matter presented was not privileged. The basis of the resolution, Mr. Payne contended, was based upon an alleged secret report to the Danish government.

"On my honor as a member of this House," said he, "I have now in my desk what purports to be the point of order that the secret confidential report of the full responsibility of my words, I believe I have unimpeached evidence that this report was made to the Danish government by a man if not a real agent of that government."

"When did the gentlemen obtain access to the secret report of the Danish government?" interposed Mr. Payne sarcastically.

"I have never been to Denmark," retorted Mr. Richardson, "and I do not know where there are other ways of obtaining the secret report of the Danish government. I do not bring it here for the purpose of making a charge against the Danish government. I bring it here for the purpose of making a charge against the Danish government."

"Members of Congress," he said, "did not include members of the House. If members of the Senate, that body must be the custodian of its own morals. The resolution of the House is a technical objection."

"The resolution is a technical objection," interposed a member of the House, "and it is a grave charge. I do not bring it here for the purpose of making a charge against the Danish government. I bring it here for the purpose of making a charge against the Danish government."

Yale Man Tackled Roulette at Canfield's Place.

ST. LOUISAN SAW THE GAME

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 27.—"Dick" Canfield is $105,000 richer than he was two weeks ago. His bank won it at roulette on the nights of March 14 and 15.

A St. Louis student in Yale is said to have witnessed the game.

"Canfield's victim was one of the younger sons of one of the richest families in New York."

It is known, however, that the young man who lost this princely sum recently came into a great fortune, left him by his father. On attaining his majority the legacy was turned over to him, with a large income, chiefly invested in railway stocks.

Some of young Reginald Vanderbilt's college chums, all members of the senior class at Yale, gave a dinner at Delmonico's at which the young man was guest of honor, or, having just reached his majority, the list represented the sons of some of the richest families in the United States, and the most prominent seniors at Yale.

COAL OPERATORS MET THE MINERS

Civic Federation Scored Important Point in Arbitration.

CONFERENCE WAS EXECUTIVE

ITS CONDITIONS WERE CAREFULLY GUARDED SECRETS.

Understanding, However, Is That Invitation to Owners to Confer Contained No Reference to Terms or Workers' Demands.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Brought together by the conciliatory of the National Civic Federation, the leaders of the United Mine Workers' Association and four of the largest coal operators met here today and in secret session discussed their differences. The mine workers were represented by J. Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers' Association, and three district presidents of that organization—Thomas Nichols, John Fahy and Thomas Duffy—and the operators who met them were W. H. Truesdale, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western; E. R. Thomas, chairman of the board of the Erie Railroad; George S. Baer of the Reading road, and Robert Glynn, president of the Delaware & Hudson Co.

The conference was arranged by a sub-committee of the conciliation committee of the National Civic Federation yesterday after that body had listened to the representations of John Mitchell and the men who came with him from Shamokin convention.

The sub-committee members were Senator Hanna, Oscar S. Straus and Frank Duggan, and when the operators agreed to go into the conference was made public. It was understood, however, that Senator Hanna and his fellow committee members invited the operators in behalf of the National Civic Federation and that the miners or as to possible recognition of the union involved in conferring with its representatives.

The meeting was held at the Church Mission House and began shortly before 11 o'clock. The mine workers were on hand first. After them came a number of conciliators headed by Senator Hanna and Oscar Straus, and then came the coal operators.

Just before the meeting began Senator Hanna came to the door and to the newspaper men and said: "Messrs. Thomas, Baer, Truesdale and Glynn have come here today at our invitation to meet the representatives of the United Mine Workers' Association and discuss the situation with them. I cannot say what will be done or what the conference will result in. They will probably be together for an hour or an hour and a half."

"Did I see J. P. Morgan yesterday? Certainly I did, but I did not mention this matter to him. It is simply not true that we discussed the coal situation."

SEATON WANTS HIS CHILDREN

Former Lubadine Man Begins Habeas Corpus Proceedings Against Mr. and Mrs. Seth Wheaton.

Hamilton M. Seaton, formerly of Lubadine, Mo., instituted habeas corpus proceedings in the St. Louis court today, Thursday, to recover possession of his two children, Lucy R., aged 12 years, and Ora H., aged 10.

The proceedings are directed against Mr. and Mrs. Seth Wheaton of 3232 Park avenue.

The petition recites that the mother of the children died May 10, 1901, and on Nov. 1 following the children were placed in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton, agreeing to allow them $12.50 a month for the children's board.

Seaton says he kept the agreement. A few days ago, however, when he called at the Wheaton home and asked for the children, he says he was refused them. He says that he is willing to show you, in getting Ora, but the Wheatons still have Lucy.

He asks the court to grant him possession of both children. The case will be heard Saturday.

COAL MINERS' CONVENTION

Delegates Representing Fifth and Ninth Scale Districts Meet to fix Schedule for Ensuing Year.

Delegates representing the coal miners of the Fifth and Ninth Scale Districts of Illinois met in annual convention in Geary's Hall, East St. Louis, Thursday, to arrange a scale of wages for the ensuing year. The mine operators will meet in East St. Louis Friday and review the scale prepared by the miners and Saturday miners and operators will meet in joint session and agree on the scale.

All sessions of both the miners and the operators will be held in the main hall, Thursday, that they expected no change from the scale that has been in force during the past year.

Delegates present at Thursday's meeting were from Percy, Snetterton, Belleville, Mackinaw, Collinsville, O'Fallon, Macouba, Clyde, Coffey, Rentchler and other mining towns in the two scale districts.

Harris Custom Ties.

Positively more shoes are made in St. Louis than any other city in the Union. Harris, the well-known $4.00 shoe man, has probably gotten out the neatest and best fitting shoe ever produced by a St. Louis shoemaker. They are made in plain toes and the bottoms turn up under the main part, or ball of the foot, fitting into the hollow of the instep, giving a man the appearance of wearing a much smaller shoe, and more comfortable than any other style you can get. They are made in patent kid and velvet calf, in low or high cut. Harris expects to put five thousand pairs out this season, and if you should happen to meet a man who has been paying $12.00 for his shoes, and who is willing to show you, you will probably find the name inside is Harris, Equitable Building, 608 Sixth street.

Victory for American Financiers.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The Mexican government has awarded to Geo. A. Cook & Co. and Mason & Co. $100,000 redeemable internal 5-per-cent bonds of the fourth series. In connection with the award the important announcement is made that the fiscal and semi-annual interest on these bonds will be paid in New York instead of in London and Amsterdam, as heretofore.

Surprising Results.

A SIMPLE INTERNAL REMEDY MAKES REMARKABLE CURES OF CATARRH.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form; druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents for full sized treatment, is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies. Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children, by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat, which causes coughing is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause, but by deadening the nerves of feeling the irritation is not felt although it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach, because they are composed of whole some antiseptics, blood root, Red gum from Eucalyptus tree, etc. When you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiates or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Ramsdell, in commenting on catarrh cures, says: "I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine nor other dangerous drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long standing catarrh of the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular, which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy."

Dr. Wainwright says: "I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness, because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their regular daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores is no reason why any good physician should not use them, because we should seize upon the means of cure wherever found."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children, because they are pleasant to the taste and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

FORTUNE FAVORED THIS BANK.

Notes for $100,000, Thought Worthless, Unexpectedly Declared Good.

NILES, Mich., March 27.—By a decision just handed down in Bay County the creditors of the defunct First National Bank of Niles will profit to the extent of $100,000. Several years ago a local company sold to farmers goods to be delivered by a Chicago house, taking the purchasers' notes. When the goods arrived it was asserted they were inferior. Many of the farmers refused to receive them and allowed their notes to go to protest. These notes were discounted by Charles A. Johnson, former cashier of the bank, now serving a prison sentence. Suit was begun against the delinquent farmers before the bank's failure. A test case was made of the one decided in Bay County against John Ryland for $100.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething gives quiet, helpful rest.

EDWARD TAKES A VACATION.

Leaves London for a Cruise on the Royal Yacht.

LONDON, March 27.—King Edward, with scores of other Easter holiday makers, left London this afternoon. He will embark on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert at Portsmouth and spend a few days at Cowes. Thence he will go on a week's cruise off the coast.

There was an extraordinary exodus to the continent. Several extra passenger steamers had to be requisitioned to carry the holiday crowds.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Made Over by Quitting Coffee.

Coffee probably wrecks a greater percentage of Southerners than Northern people, for Southerners use it more freely.

The work it does is distressing enough in some instances; as an illustration, Miss Sue W. Fairall, 517 N. 4th St., Richmond, Va., writes: "I was a coffee drinker for years and for about six years my health was completely shattered. I suffered fearfully with headaches and nervousness, also palpitation of the heart and loss of appetite."

My sight gradually began to fail and finally I lost the sight of one eye altogether. The eye was operated upon and the sight partially restored, then I became totally blind in the other eye.

My doctor used to urge me to give up coffee, but I was willful and continued to drink it until finally in a last case of severe illness the doctor insisted that I give up the coffee, so I began using Postum Food coffee, and in a month I was a new creature.

I readily gained in health and strength. About a month ago I began using Postum Nuts Breakfast Food and the effect has been wonderful. I really feel like a new woman and have gained about 35 pounds.

I am quite an elderly lady and before using Postum Nuts Breakfast Food I could not walk a square or twelve without feeling it. Formerly, but now my memory holds fast what I read. Several friends who have seen the remarkable effects of Postum Nuts Breakfast Food on me have taken to the facts of the public for the use of suffering humanity, so, with due publicity, you can publish this and my name if you like."

BOYS' STRIKE PUT OUT 600 MEN

O'bear-Nester Glass Co. Forced to Shut Down.

LOSS WILL BE $1000 A DAY

DEPUTY SHERIFFS TO BE CALLED TO PROTECT NEW EMPLOYEES.

One Hundred and Sixty Youths in East St. Louis Demand Ten Cents More a Day, but Company Will Not Grant It.

A strike of 160 boys from 11 to 15 years old compelled the O'bear-Nester Glassworks in East St. Louis, employing almost 600 men, to shut down Thursday morning.

Each day of idleness, according to General Manager Frederick Nester, will cost the company $1000.

With the aid of deputy sheriffs to protect new boys, Mr. Nester says an effort will be made to resume work Friday morning. Agents of the company spent Thursday curing boys to take the places of those who struck.

As told exclusively in Wednesday's Post-Dispatch, 65 boys struck Wednesday morning, demanding a raise of 10 cents a day in salaries.

Only about 15 boys reported for work Thursday morning and the works were shut down for the day.

The striking boys work as helpers to the glass blowers, and their service is indispensable. New boys, according to Mr. Nester, by close application, can learn to do the work required of them in a few days.

The strikers were getting from 50 cents to $1.00 a day, working eight and one-half hours. They demand a recent increase throughout their scale.

Nester says the company is paying the same wages as paid by the other glass works in the country and will not accede to the boys' demands.

The boys, according to Mr. Nester, have been orderly since they quit work and have remained away from the factory. They have no union, he says.

BABY FELL 25 FEET WITHOUT INJURY

ALIGHTED ON BRICK PAVEMENT, BUT WAS ONLY BRUISED.

BABY MICHAEL DAILY.

Wee Michael Daily of 2632 Howard street, 15 months old, fell from a second story window to the brick pavement 25 feet below Wednesday afternoon, and when his mother picked him up, he was uninjured.

Dr. Soraghan of 1503 North Jefferson avenue, who was called instantly, said the infant had sustained no severe harm.

Neither baby or physician think the few bruises on Michael's back count.

Mrs. Daniel Daily, Michael's mother, is only half convinced.

Michael feels compensated by the very great reputation for agility he has achieved.

A decade hence, when Michael's retinue in the Court of Boyville tell how many times they can skin the cat, he'll say:

"Fudge, I was an acrobat when I wore dresses." And he can prove the fact by police records.

Michael's fame was forced upon him. He was not a candidate for eminence till his baby sister, Catherine, forced his nomination by pushing a chair to the raised window.

Michael walks and talks and has a way of doing things for himself. The proximity of chair and window suggested pigs.

Heretofore it had been a great delight to sit at the window and watch the heads of porkers, which the drovers drive daily over Elliot avenue by his house.

Maybe he could see more pigs, he thought, and, quick as a wink, he climbed in the chair and tugged away until he pushed the shutters open. Mrs. Daniel Daily had relied on those shutters to protect Michael, but they were not strong enough to jail an active baby.

Baby Catherine, aged 2 years, was delighted with Michael's success. She neglected her duty as nurse to lean over the window sill, peering down the street. Michael tried the trick and lost his balance.

His little body slipped over the sill and dashed away down to the brick pavement on Elliot avenue.

Catherine screamed and Mrs. Daily called from the kitchen, saw the open window and ran down the steps, fearing that her child was dead.

She saw wee Michael sitting with his back against the wall, a little dazed, but proud at the success of his first attempt to run away from home.

CAR STRUCK LUFT'S LOAD.

Heavy Lumber Nearly Crushed Life From Driver.

Henry Luft received injuries at 11 o'clock Wednesday that will probably result in his death.

Luft is 35 years old, single, and lives at 1422 Wright street. He is a teamster employed by the Giesse & Henselman Lumber Co. He was driving on top of a wagon heavily laden with lumber on Gravois avenue, near the city limits, when a Cherokee car crashed into the wagon.

Luft was thrown from the wagon and the lumber was overturned upon him. When he was dragged from beneath the wreck he was taken to the South Side Dispensary, where Dr. Eberman found that he had severe concussion of the brain and that he was bruised all over his body. He was sent to the City Hospital and the doctors say his condition is serious.

MISSING JEWELS SOUGHT.

Public Administrator Ramsacking the

Queer Home of Margaret Hyde.

Diligent search for the missing jewels of the late Mrs. Margaret Hyde, who died at her home, 1314 Walnut street, Tuesday morning, was continued all day Wednesday without result, though $22.25 was found under the piano cover.

Public Administrator Strode, with two assistants, ransacked the house from top to bottom, pulling up carpets and cutting open bed ticks in the hope of finding the little chamote bag in which, it is said, the woman kept a diamond ring, worth $100, and other articles of value.

A very strenuous life went out when Cecil Rhodes died.

A "legislative agent" is no more nor less than a lobby lobbyist.

The Cronin combine is again "throwing it into" New St. Louis.

The essentials for New St. Louis are clean water and clean streets.

Technical defense in the bottle cases will not raise the defendants in public estimation.

Smoke Inspector Jones says that all plants except 183 have put in smoke-consuming devices. Which are the 183?

WORK FOR THE FACTORY INSPECTOR.

Perhaps the most important of the duties of a factory inspector is to see that women and minors who are compelled to work in factories or stores are given such conditions for health and comfort

as the law requires.

In this connection, the Post-Dispatch has received a letter from a girl, which reads as follows:

Will you kindly say in your paper what a factory inpector has power to do. I am working with a number of other girls at a coffee house on South Seventh street,

and all of us girls have to stand for nine and one-half hours daily, and we get so tired we almost faint. Some times ago a factory inspector came while we were at work and told the boss he must furnish chairs or stools. I told you, we girls never enjoyed a happier moment than when we heard it, but it was in vain. No chairs or stools up to the present, nor are we able to get any.

This letter is signed and is evidently a complaint called out by a genuine case of hardship which the factory inspection law was passed to prevent.

Section 6443 of that law reads:

Seats for Women.—In every manufacturing, mechanical, mercantile and other establishment in this state wherein girls or women are employed, there shall be provided and conveniently located seats sufficient to comfortably seat such girls or women, and during such times

as such girls or women are not necessarily required by their duties to be upon their feet, they shall be allowed to occupy seats provided.

The penalty for violating this law is a fine of from $25 to $500 for the first offense; from $100 to $500 for each subsequent offense, and in default of payment of fine, imprisonment until payment is made.

It is the duty of the factory inspector to enforce this section, as well as all others, of the factory laws. Why it is not done? Are factory inspectors appointed merely to collect their fees, or to enforce the laws?

Plain provisions for the enforcement of this law are incorporated in the statute. If it is not enforced in this or any other case it is because the factory inspector fails to perform his duty.

It is full time to begin the work of clarifying the city water.

And the way to begin is to go to work on settling basins and a filtering plant.

PARISHIONERS VS. POMPADOUR.

Not every man can be good looking, yet few modern men have so moving a tale of sadness as Rev. William H. Walker. As long as he preached to his little congregation in his little Congregational church in the little town of Wilmette, near Chicago, he not even making objection to the cut of his whiskers, though it pained them greatly, and saying nothing of his physiognomy as a whole, though it was little to their liking; but when he combed

his hair pompadour "to please his mother-in-law," his audience

melted away like dew on the mountain, "like snowfall in the river."

"I have never been led to believe that I am a handsome man," said Rev. Mr. Walker, "but I am forced to believe that many people would rather see a good-looking preacher than to hear a good sermon."

What greater tribute could be paid to the character of Rev. Mr.

Walker than the announcement that he adopted a style ten years out of date "to please his mother-in-law"? Yet here we have a and case of virtue seeking its reward. This preacher is looking for a new pupil. Will the secular public stand for the pompadour which has been rejected by the church?

Lobbyists and legislative agents are all one; change of name does not imply change of species. They are birds of prey,

call them what you will.

A GREAT TASK

The value of the new conciliation committee of the Civic Fed-

cent one child, 11.8 per cent two children, 6 per cent three, 2.6

per cent four, 1.1 per cent five and 1 per cent six.

The largest number of divorces occur during the sixth and seventh years after the marriage.

The one impressive fact, however, is the frequency of divorce in the United States. That we lead all other nations put together in this respect is calculated to startle the most optimistic.

Mr. John B. Dempsey is doing public service, as well as looking after his own interests, in taking steps to compel the railway companies to obey the law in regard to safety gates at Tower

Grove crossing. The Post-Dispatch first called attention to the fact that these gates had been out of use for some time. Mr.

Dempsey has shown how citizens can co-operate with the Post-

Dispatch in needed reforms. Now let others see that every grade crossing is properly protected, as the law requires.

THE CRONIN GANG AGAIN.

In the House of Delegates six important street improvement

bills were killed and eleven more were postponed to a date which makes the possibility of their passage extremely doubtful.

The following sixteen delegates voted as a unit for the defeat of the six bills and the postponement of the eleven bills:

Brennan, Buckley, Cronin, Denny, Fontana, Gazzolo, Han-

nigan, Howard, Kinney, Keln, Pfeiffer, Stannard, Sweeney, Troll, Williams, Zachritz.

This is practically the old Cronin combine—the gang of delegates

whose vicious and tyrannical conduct of the house in the interest of jobbers, plunderers and spoliators resulted in a blockade of

most important legislation and several outrageous grabs and so

aroused the indignation of citizens that a reorganization of the house was forced on its feet.

The gang is at its old tricks again and is preparing to reorganize the house in the interests of its members and their plundering allies.

Delegate Sweeney said the action of the combine was merely a slap at Speaker Kelly. "We're just throwing it into Kelly tonight," said he.

They are just throwing it into the people of St. Louis and the plans to prepare St. Louis for the World's Fair. They are doing their best to kill New St. Louis.

As to the motive of it, the best construction admitted by the gang leaders is a factional fight. But Speaker Kelly suggests an asphalt job.

But whether the defeat of the bills was due to a factional fight

or a job it was wholly unworthy of public servants and offers

fresh proof of the viciousness and incompetence of the controlling element of the House of Delegates.

The question it brings up is, shall the plans for the betterment of St. Louis be destroyed by the House of Delegates?

How long will the people permit such men to stand in the way of progress?

An energetic woman wants to break into the Chicago board of aldermen and many will hope that she may succeed. If every municipal assembly in the United States were composed entirely of women, municipal government could not be worse than it is,

and it might be better.

In this year of high-priced potatoes the turnip has come in as an aid to the economy of the kitchen. The proper combination of potato and turnip is pleasing to the palate. The turnip came from Rome and no doubt graced the tables of the Cæsars. Long live the turnip.

It is quite a concession to the late President Harrison to place his portrait upon the 13-cent stamp. Mr. Harrison, it will be remembered, did not approve our Philippine policy. He thought it very un lucky.

Not only is the Missouri mule at war in South Africa and the Philippines, but he is figuring conspicuously in the preliminary work of the World's Fair. Hardly anything could go on long without him.

So long as people who have not married wish they had, and people who have married wish they had not, it isn't going to be easy to arrive at a conclusion, even with the help of judges of courts.

There is a possibility of the establishment of a United States district court in East St. Louis. The Illinois St. Louis is going right on along with the Missouri metropolis.

An unlimited labor supply appears to be one of the features of the World's Fair work thus far.

Among the casualties of the South African war is the death of poor Cecil Rhodes.

The Cuban evacuation will bring a squadron of cavalry and a band to St. Louis.

Bad streets make bad neighborhoods. They are depressing and demoralizing.

There seems to be no way to abate the House of Delegates in time.

A noisy street cannot be a good one.

POST-DISPATCH SNAP SHOTS.

It is lucky for pa in the Easter time that his own hat doesn't cost $20.

A great many of us will be on Easy street when the granite is resurfaced.

The limburger cheese insurgents in Louisville have resolved

not to be pacified.

With a Schaeferkoetter on every block the trolley death rate would be much reduced.

As neither Adam nor Eve knew anything of alcoholics, it is clear that they saw no serpents in Eden that were not there.

The shutting off of high school poets by the East St. Louis

High School Literary Society may be due to the advent of spring.

The New York street car that executed a hair cut for a young man without hurting her head does not quite deserve her upbraiding.

If we are to have perpetual motion as well as airship races at the World's Fair, there can be no estimating the crowds that

Spring Fever.

What is this languid feeling that I feel?

Why is it that I pine for solitude,

And all activity is scorned, taboed

And set at naught, Oh, where hath fled

My zeal?

For dully told? Hath Ennui set her seal

Upon my brow? Why, if it be, I feel

Unto my seat, and cannot shake the mood

Which seems so seasonably unreal?

Nothing could move me but a mighty lover.

Or else a derelict. Men are awful boys.

Unless my fancy is a gay deceiver,

I have a sharp attack of vernal fever,

Which may prove fatal, if I stay indoors

And don't go fishing on some friendly shores.

Chicago grave-diggers say they have deep,

solemn and impressive reasons for forming a union.

All Over.

Whatever be the lights or shades

That come with twilight or the dawn,

We'll all be here, for we are all made

Where Cecil Rhodes has gone.

Some Poses We See.

On the billboards this week are seen lith-

ographs of a pair, intellectual face, with deep

eyes, against the cheek of which a human finger is thoughtfully pressed. These figures and this finger are the property of

Mr. N. C. Goodwin. No, not "Nat" Good-

win. How dare you! Show yourself a gentleman and call him Mister.

Mr. Goodwin has changed the "roses and raptures" of popularity for the "lilies and

languors" of high art.

When a gentleman assumes high art, please don't say to him, "You are a softie,"

be "a nector" and becomes "an actor,"

he becomes a "Mr." in his own right. It is just like a preacher passing through the chrysalis stage from "Rev." to "Dr."

Some of us who do not affect poses of the ultra intellectual kind wonder why some other men do. For example, why do we see

Paul Leicester Ford standing at us when we enter a book store, with one finger pointing to his cranium, as though he were trying to determine what "a" amounts to

in an algebraic problem? Why does Booth

Tarkington always (in his lithographs) seem to have his mind centered on the Darwinian theory? Why does Richard Harding

Davis, every time he has a picture taken,

seem to be striving to recall some difficult passage from Caesar's Commentaries?

It may be that we are too commonplace

and unromantic to appreciate the beauties

of a good pose. Or it may be that these gentlemen feel they have earned the right to do "something different." At any rate, it is a good "ad." It makes the groundlings stare.

SPORTING NEWS

FELTZ WANTS REFEREE WHITE

Aspirant for Bantamweight
Honors Wants Competent Referee.

Tommy Feltz, ready for his championship fight, arrived in St. Louis Thursday morning from Savannah, in company with his manager, McBrine.

Feltz, after his campaign here, went to Savannah to visit his wife. His next battle will be with Johnny Regan at the West End Club's quarters Monday night.

Feltz has all the confidence in the world
that he will beat Regan in the 20 rounds allotted him. He thinks he had all the better of the last fight they had here. The winner of the Feltz-Regan affair will fight Harry Forbes later. Feltz has no idea of losing the Regan fight to all appearances.
When asked who would referee the fight
Monday night, he said he supposed Nelson
would handle that affair.

"When I meet Forbes later," continued
the irrepressible little fighter, as though the first battle were all settled and the purse won, "I shall be in a position to provide the best referee obtainable. Nelson is straight as a die and I believe would give an opinion as he thought was right. Nevertheless, I would like to see Charley White
do the refereeing for the championship fight with Forbes. He would prove a good drawing card."

Feltz says Owen Ziegler makes a good referee though, of course, on account of their association, he could not officiate in any of Feltz's fights. Probably George Siler will be selected in the end.

Feltz has kept in good condition, and attracted considerable attention during the journey from Savannah by training in the baggage car. The passengers that a championship pugilist was getting into shape for a contest in the baggage car, and the majority of the male passengers flocked to the front to watch the fun. Feltz worked more than an hour, much to the edification of the onlookers.

He will continue his training at Mooney's gymnasium during his stay in St. Louis.
Kid Gorrie and Jack Cento have been agreed upon for the preliminary to the Feltz-Regan affair. Garric recently returned from New Orleans.

ENGLISH GOLFERS TO BE INVITED

Fox Hill Club Will Ask
British Team to Visit
America.

NEW YORK, March 27.—There is now a probability that a team of representative
amateur golfers of Great Britain will visit
the United States this year. The Fox Hill Golf Club, one of the most progressive in the United States, has decided to invite a team of six of the most expert amateurs
in England and Scotland to come over as the guests of the club.

The visitors will cross the ocean at their own expense, but upon their arrival they will receive a hearty welcome and be taken care of by the club while they remain here.
Morning M. Singer, former member of the club, will sail for Europe early in June,
and will spend six or eight weeks visiting
leading golf courses in England and Scotland.

DECIDING BASKETBALL GAME
High School Alumni and South Sides
Will Struggle for Championship
at Louisiana Hall.

The deciding game in the local basketball championship race will be played
Thursday night at Louisiana Hall, 911 North
Vanderbilt avenue, when the High School Alumni team meets the South Sides. If the High School aggregation wins, it will have played the season without losing a game. The South Sides have a chance to be the enemy, they having lost once.
The Monarchs and the Drummond Guards
also play Thursday night. Ladies will be admitted free. Play starts at 8.

M'GOVERN AGAIN IS "MATCHED"

W. G. St. Clair Says Willie
Fitzgerald Will Meet
Terry April 18.

According to William G. St. Clair, manager of the promising young Philadelphia
boxer, Willie Fitzgerald, Terry McGovern's next battle will be not with Abe Attell or Henry Yanger or Dave Sullivan, but with Fitzgerald.

St. Clair, in a personal communication to the sporting editor, states that he has about concluded terms for the McGovern-Fitzgerald match, which, according to his statement, will take place at the Industrial Athletic Club, Philadelphia, April 18.

Fitzgerald is one of the rising men in the case now fighting at 126-135 pounds.
He has been appearing in the six-round air-fairs permitted in Philadelphia, and has several good battles to his credit with the men of the East.

Originally he was from Gowanus, the part of Brooklyn where Terry McGovern secured his start, and is said to resemble the former "Terrible" in many ways. He is said to be the successor of Young Corbett and McGovern.

McGovern will be his most ambitious enemy in the pugilistic world. He has been whipping all the smaller fry in the East
and his manager thinks he is good enough to take a chance with.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

Burkett, Sudhoff and Powell shook the mud of St. Louis from their feet Thursday and departed for West Baden to begin training. All of the men are overweight and want to begin reducing as soon as possible.
Manager McAleer expects to follow his men to West Baden about Sunday, and the entire team, the disputed players also, are expected to show up at West Baden Wednesday, Wallace alone excepted. The loss of a relative will delay his arrival a few days.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the grandstand and grounds at Athletic Park
and when the steel is received from Chicago the completion of the stands will go forward rapidly.

The selection of James C. Ghio for the vice-presidency of the American League
club, as announced in yesterday afternoon's
Post-Dispatch, completes the list of officers of the new organization. An assistant will be selected to help the secretary. Mr.
Ghio, like his associate in the directorate or vice-president, was a business man before he was a sportsman, but is a fan at all times. In Messrs. Hedges, Orthwein and Ghio the local end of the American League
has three exceptional representatives.

Christian Brothers' College has rounded its baseball team in shape for opening the season. Its first contest will be played Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. on the college campus. The Globes will be the opposing team. Betts and Kiser have been selected to do duty for C. B. C.

The college will maintain a distinctly amateur team to represent it in university contests. The Sunday team will be practically the same as the semi-professional battery will do duty.

Billy Reddy announces that he will stick to the St. Louis team and postpone his business venture that was expected to interfere. He announces that he will report
all ready to go on time. Manager McAleer is relieved in mind as he is now assured of five first-class pitchers.

John C. Mohr of Philadelphia, American League team, has signed John Rebbie, a Richmond, Va., ball player. He plays in the infield and is said to be a promising man.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Fears that the Paris-Vienna automobile race will be abandoned are evidently unfounded, as no information has been made here to that effect.
The Paris-Dispatch has been published
preparations for the race are being con-

YANKEES NAMED FOR CORONATION BOUTS

Nine Professionals Have Signed to Fight Before
English Club.

NEW YORK, March 27.—C. Lea, founder of the National Sporting Club of London, and W. A. Gavin, chairman of the directorate, who, as a committee, arrived here March 8 to secure professional and amateur athletic talent to compete with European athletes in London during coronation week, have sailed for home.

"The following pugilists have signed contracts with us," said Mr. Gavin:
"Gus Ruhlin, Kid McCoy, George Gar-
rard, Tommy Ryan, Tom Sharkey, Joe Walcott, Frank Erne, Harry Harris and Johnny Gorman, and negotiations are under way to secure Harvey Parker, the wrestler.
"We have to leave for home sooner than we expected, as we have entire charge of the coronation tournaments, and we must be back to judge of talent which has been procured on the continent and in the Ori-ents."

"The matches have been so far arranged between professional pugilists as those between Joe Walcott and Tommy West, Harry Harris and Andrew Tokell, English box-weights, and Johnny Gorman against Plum."

USES AN ACCORDION.
John C. Mohr Is Conducting a Musical Campaign.

John C. Mohr of Millstadt, in St. Clair County, believes that music has charms to win votes for
him. He is making an accordion campaign.
Mr. Mohr is a candidate for the office of village trustee and his vigor is out of proportion to the importance of the office.
He goes campaigning every evening, taking his trusty accordion along with him. Every place he goes he gives a concert, then tells up his candidacy and then gives another concert.
He is making a hit with his accordion music, but his adversary is not complaining. He says that for every vote several more will be given for the office of village trustee. That in turn does not worry Mohr. He says that on the whole, the village trustee will be a good job to do. He says that he will campaign on the street of all who have not voted for him and play his accordion until they give their pledges to get him to office.
Mr. Mohr is said to have promised that if he is elected to the Village Board he will take his accordion to every meeting and begin proceedings
with music.

NASTURTIUM OUT OF ENGLISH DERBY

W. C. Whitney Thinks His Colt Will Not Be in Condition.

NEW YORK, March 27.—William C. Whitney does not think he will be able to run Nasturtium in the English Derby. This $50,000 colt is not in condition and is improving slowly.

"If you were to ask my opinion of Nasturtium's chances of winning the English Derby I would say I do not believe he has one in ten thousand."

"This was Mr. Whitney's reply to a query about his $50,000 colt's physical condition.
"I have not decided on any action at present," he said, when asked if he had decided to withdraw the entry. "The race is too far off to say just what I will do. My last letter from Mr. Huggins stated that Nasturtium was slowly improving in health. That was some time ago."
Huggins is not much of a letter writer. He is a much better trainer.

"The colt, I believe, has been exercising lately, but nothing fast or long has been asked of him. From all I have heard he was quite fit and wasted away considerably.
The interval of time is so short before the race—about two months—that I hardly believe he will be able to start. It will take all that time, it seems to me, to get his health back again."

Asked if he was in favor of the "no recall" system, Mr. Whitney said:
"Yes, I am. The old style of starting horses was injurious. Rushing a horse away from the post at top speed and then holding him up suddenly was more harmful to him than the race. All this is obviated under the new system. The horse runs as fast as he is capable and the best horse invariably wins."

Continuous Pool Tournament.
At Tidley Bros. Twentieth and Salisbury streets, a continuous pool tournament is being held. George Jones and F. Cordey opened the play Wednesday night. Thursday night L. Peal and Ed. Mader will meet, followed by Charles Peal, H. Bitter, Shanks Menke, Chas. Oelger, Chas. Brandy,
Red Silk, Art. Lohman and Geo. Summers.
In the order named, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons and nights.

RIALTOS NOW LEAD MOUND CITY LEAGUE

Spencers Are Defeated in the Struggle for Cocked-Hat
Supremacy.

RIALTOS 4, SPENCERS 1.
By their victory over the Spencers on the Royal Wednesday the Rialtos are now the leaders in the Mound City Cocked-Hat League. They won easily by 4 to 1. The Spencers did not play up to their usual mark. Lippelman and Berglund finished in front for the winners, while Gregory and Mueller led the losers.

BLUE RIBBONS 3, CONSUMERS 2.
On the Acme alleys Wednesday night the Blue Ribbons defeated the Consumers by a score of 3 to 2. The match was a lively one, and both teams played well. Shaw of the losing team was the star player, averaging 66-15
and going 83 in the last game. Miller, with an average of 60 and a total of 200, led the winners.

PIERSERS 3, MONARCHS 2.
On Oberbeck's alleys Thursday night the Piersers and Monarchs of the North End League had a tie, the former winning the old game. The average of both teams was under 50. Killage and Lepper were the leaders of the winners, while E. Oberbeck and Rowe were in front for the losers.

HIGH ROLLERS 5, COLUMBIANS 0.
In a series between the High Rollers and Columbians Wednesday night, the latter were whitewashed, losing five consecutive games.
Daugherty was a little in front of Poltgen
and Scholl for the winners, while Roebke
and Zaitzow were on top for the losers.

BADERS 4, BADENS 1.
A one-pity victory in the fourth game of the series saved the Badens from a shutout in their contest Wednesday night with the Baders. Spencer was easily the leader of the winners with Schlemm in the place.
Kraft and Hoffman did the best work for the losers.

GRANDS 2, MAGAZINES 2.
In a contest between the Grands and Magazines Wednesday night, the former won by a score of 2 to 2. Besser and Neils were out in front for the winners and Dieckman and Stock excelled for the losers.

OBERBECK 4, PROGRESSIVES 1.
On Puerer's alleys Wednesday night, the Oberbecks defeated the Progressives by 4 to 1. The general average was low. Oberbeck and Schiller had a close fight for the leadership of the winners, and Henthorn
and Metz were the best of the Progressives.

In the Puerer Cocked Hat League the Woodchoppers and Bremens had a match
Wednesday night, the former winning by a score of 3 to 2. Wheeler, with an average of 52-35, was much the best of the winners, and J. Puerer was in front for the losers. Summaries:

The Emperor as an Advertisement.

From the New York Express.

The building of the Emperor's yacht has been entrusted to the firm of Townsend & Downey which it might not otherwise have acquired in ten years of the ordinary routine of shipbuilding. Shooter's Island yard is now owned by a stock company, having a capital of $2,500,000, and

To Attend Parliament in Prison Garb.
From the London Mail.
There is a rumor in the Parliamentary lobby
that a number of Irish members who have recently been imprisoned intend to go to London in a cage of iron bars.
The intention is to bring some English members the fact of their imprisonment.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The right edge of the page is bound into a dark, textured cover, possibly leather or a similar material. The overall lighting is even, highlighting the subtle variations in the paper's tone and texture.

MRS. ELLEN BERNOUDY DEAD

Well-Known Lady Once Connected With the School Board Will Be Buried Saturday.

Mrs. Ellen Taylor Bernoudy, aged 61, died at her late home, 310 Lindell boulevard, Thursday morning and will be buried Saturday morning from the College Church, Grand avenue and Lindell boulevard.

Mrs. Bernoudy was the widow of the late Edward H. Bernoudy, a prominent business man. Mrs. Bernoudy was at one time a conspicuous figure in St. Louis society. She was educated at the Sacred Heart convent, where many daughters of the old French families were given mental polish and social grace. For many years Mrs. Bernoudy was connected with the school board, a part of the time secretary to the superintendent. Four years ago she gave up this work.

Mrs. Bernoudy leaves three sons, Alex G., Edward and William.

CITY NEWS.

All lovers of the beautiful in nature will be getting their house in order as well as their front and back yards, for the Second Annual Sale, Monday, the 31st, at THE CRAWFORD STORE, fourth floor (five elevators), of 50,000 Rose Bushes, in all the well-known varieties, with many new and beautiful ones, from the largest and best-known nursery in Alabama! These rose bushes are today being sold by the traveling men of all nurseries in the United States, all over this broad land, for $1.00 each; no less and no more! THE CRAWFORD STORE figures and makes a contract with one of the largest concerns in America one year ahead, and takes its whole outfit for a price, cash down, thereby enabling it to offer the good people of St. Louis, instead of the standard price, $1 a bush, 3 bushes for $2.00! A veritable enigma to every gardener in the world! A CRAWFORD Method, however, of convincing the people that they are not only "St. Louis' Greatest Store" in Dry Goods Matters, but also to convince the people they can show the husbandman a wrinkle in his business.

ZINC ORE PRICES ON JUMP.

Rise of $3.50 a Ton in One Week at Joplin.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JOPLIN, Mo., March 27.—Zinc ore is on the boom here. Several sales have been made today at $32.50 a ton, which is $3.50 more than it brought last week. Producers expect a further advance. The rise is accounted for by the fact that the smelters have been compelled to exert themselves to get enough ore to avoid a shutdown, which is expensive.

Anniversary of Modern Spiritualism.

The fifty-fourth anniversary of Modern Spiritualism will be observed on next Sunday afternoon in Howard Hall, Garrison avenue and Olive street.

Three Hurt by a Car.

Three occupants of a wagon struck by a Buick sedan car at Florissant and Marcus avenues Wednesday night were severely injured. Gustav Buren, 6219 Florissant avenue, the driver, was cut on the head and body when violently pitched from the car. Louis Wagner, 6219 Florissant avenue, and Henry Herbert, 6219 Florissant avenue, were thrown from the wagon to the car platform. Wagner's left leg was broken. Herbert was cut and bruised about the face and head.

School Changes.—Superintendent Soloman has appointed Walter A. Godfrey principal of the Carondelet school, to succeed Charles E. Wray, who has been transferred to the superintendent's office. J. Chester Flagg of Milford, N. H., will succeed Mr. Godfrey as instructor in mathematics at the High School.

Inquiry About Dead Soldier.

Mrs. Mary A. Jones of Clinton, Mo., has written to Chief of Police Kieley to inquire about William Jones, the old soldier who cut his throat in a five-cent lodging house at 16 South Second street. She believes that he was her husband, from whom she had not heard for four years.

SPRAY TAKEN FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY

DR. MELLIES SAYS HE IS MAN WHO ROBBED HIM.

ONCE TRIED FOR A KILLING

Physician Furnished a Description and Police Arrested Spray Shortly After.

Four attempted highway robberies in the West End and two successful hold-ups in North St. Louis Wednesday night indicate a revival of Dick Turpin methods in St. Louis by at least two men.

Joseph Spray was arrested and has been identified as one of the highwaymen who acted so industriously in North St. Louis. He was arrested by Policemen Duggan, McCarthy and McGrath, and was identified by Dr. George A. Mellies as the man who assailed him at Seventeenth and Madison streets at 9 o'clock last night and at the point of a revolver, the doctor of a gold watch and $40 in cash.

Dr. Mellies lives at 239 Cass avenue. He was on his way to a professional visit when the robbery took place.

Dr. Mellies gave the police a description of the robber and Spray was arrested at his home a few hours later. He was locked up at the North Market Police Station, where he was identified by his alleged victim.

Spray was arrested for killing John Baker on O'Fallon street several years ago. He was not convicted for the offense. Later he was arrested many times for having assaulted the wife of the man he had killed. He served several without sentences for this.

John Newberry of 1231 North Taylor avenue was visited at his home by a man who demanded that he apologize for having stepped on his toes in a street car. Newberry told the man that no apology was called for, as he had not been on a street car. The visitor went away, and a few minutes later Harry Hoffman was held up near Newberry's house. He ran away and the robber fired one shot at him.

Albert Brundshaw of 768 Hayard avenue street was on his way home when Spray, he says, sprang from behind a telephone pole and flashed a revolver in his face. The young man was terrified and threw up his hands and while they were raised the young man was searched. A watch and chain, a knife and some change were taken.

Warrants charging highway robbery were issued Thursday morning. Chief Desmond said that he would have Spray indicted under the habitual criminal act.
